

A Eccher

I think it is very important to prevent any kind of fracking around the beautiful pristine waters of the Delaware. My family has fished there for many decades. It is our sacred duty as stewards of the environment to preserve and protect it so it can be used by many generations to come. We must oppose the greed and callousness of the large oil corporations where bottom line is $$$$$$$$.

A. Eccher