

James Loney

Categorically NO fracking in PA, NJ AND NY!

The greed and avarice of corporations cannot and must never supercede the rights of a population to clean air, water, and land.

Fracking and its associated infrastructure are ecological rape. Vast areas of land and forest are destroyed simply to build pipelines to transport dangerously polluted water and byproducts around the natural landscape.