

Leonard Friedland

I support a total ban on gas and oil development in the Delaware River watershed. This includes a ban on both the injection of wastewater and the withdrawal of water for fracking operations elsewhere. The Delaware is the most pristine river east of the Rocky Mountains. Such a rare and precious resource warrants our protection in perpetuity.