

Maria Brennan

Water is our most precious resource. We do not want our water used to support fracking in any manner. We need to keep our waters safe from contamination for ourselves and for generations to come. The waste water from fracking has caused harm to many and what point is there to ban the drilling but allow our waters to be used and contaminated.