

John Armistead

I do not support allowing large volumes of fresh water to be removed from the basin for fracking purposes nor do i support permitting the natural gas industry from sending fracking wastewater into the basin for treatment. The upper Delaware is a wild and scenic river and should remain so for future generations.