

Dr Gerald Sider

My family and I, sometimes with friends and their families, go canoeing or kayaking on the Delaware above Port Jervis. We usually stay the weekend. We thus both enjoy ourselves and support the local economies. If fracking is permitted we will go elsewhere, to avoid the health hazards, the disruptions, and the pollution.