

Sean Sweeney

I personally believe that fracking should be put to a stop immediately in the Delaware River Basin. The Delaware River Basin is a major contributor to the water supply in Pennsylvania and the neighboring states. 5% of Americas drinking water comes from the Delaware River Basin. This is a very serious matter that needs to be put to a halt in order to help preserve the water source and prevent any pollution in water.