

Beverly Railsback

Allowing the discharge of fracking waste into New Jersey waters makes no sense and defeats the purpose of anti-fracking regulations. Withdrawing our water to use in fracking is also counter-productive by using our resources to enable a banned practice.