

Susan Yerry

Fracking is hazardous waste disposal and creates an unstable environment that is deleterious to all life. Do we never learn? We need no more proof that fracking is toxic for life. It is a no brainer.

The environment is public health. Put people and the environment before corporations and personal gain.