

Debra Forman

I support a complete ban on fracking and am dismayed that the DRBC is even considering permitting the dumping of a drop of fracked waste water into the Delaware River, much less a plan to allow it. As your name implies, you are directed to protect the Delaware River for generations to come. Any fracked water into the River will (not may) destroy our River for generations to come.