

Marketa Anderson

Please protect the Basin's water from not only local fracking but also the misuse of its water to support fracking at other locations. And even more importantly from the return of noxious fracking waste water. Sooner or later we need to wean ourselves from fossil fuels, in favor of renewable energy. Green energy is the future. Implement it now before fossil fuel extraction and use further damages our God given planet.