

Barbara Burke

PLEASE ban fracking and fracking waste, completely, in the Delaware River Basin, including taking water from the area for the purpose of fracking. This area supports such a large population and it's crucial that our families continue to have a clean, protected watershed for drinking, bathing and recreation. Fracking is dangerous and a pure unspoiled water source is much more important than any business.