

Margery Schab

There should be no water withdrawal from the Delaware River Basin for fracking purposes. That water is for the use of citizens and the preciousness of good water should be appreciated. 17 million people rely on the water from the Basin. The entire process regarding fracking should be banned. This is the easiest and cheapest thing to do and that includes water withdrawal. Thank you