

janet perlman

Fracking would be detrimental to the water purity as well as the ecological balance in the delta. It is truly a bad idea. We need to think of the future not short term gain and at the present, we are not in need of fossil fuels but are in need of pure water.