

Karen Kent

I am asking that no water be taken from the Delaware River to be mixed with radioactive material and then released back into the river. My drinking water comes from that river and I believe that if the commission allows this, my water will become toxic. We should not be fracking anywhere, anytime, any more. Do not destroy nature for profit. Also, water is life.