

Ada Muellner

I strongly support the proposed ban on fracking in the basin and I urge the adoption of further protective measures, such as the banning of the importation of wastewater for treatment. Nothing could be more important than protecting the safety of our drinking water.