

Christine Schwenker

There has to be a complete and permanent ban on fracking and its related activities in the Delaware River Basin, the source of drinking water for 15-17 million people, including the urban areas of NYC and Philadelphia.

Some of those 15 to 17 million people affected are my grandchildren. Do not do anything to harm my grandchildren.