

Jennifer Reznick

Ban fracking and the importation of wastewater from fracking into the Delaware River Basin. Fracking introduces dangerous contaminants into the water supply and is a destructive method of obtaining gas and oil. Communities which have had fracking have suffered from earthquakes, poisoned water and polluted air. Keep the Delaware River Basin free from this unnecessary destruction.