

Joan Gugerty

All fracking must be banned from the Basin. Clean water is necessary for life and it must be protected from companies who would take the easy way out to make more profits. There is no safe fracking and the government needs too protect our water. It is your job. I depend on well water myself and I understand the necessity of protecting that water. People's lives are at stake. Do the moral and right thing.