

Stephen Chuckra

I oppose all fracking initiatives in the Delaware River basin due to the exceptional water quality and ecological diversity of the watershed: and the fact that millions of people rely on this water daily. The upper Delaware river is also the best quality trout fishery on the East Coast.

I realize that fracking is necessary and provides economic and energy benefits. I do not oppose all fracking. I only oppose it in places that are exceptional value areas.

Steve Chuckra