

Sandy Homel

Clean safe water is a gift that we can and must preserve for ourselves and future generations. Clean water is a gateway to good health and maintaining our ecological world. We owe it to our children and grandchildren to provide them with the standard of clean drinking water that generations before us have respected and preserved.