

Eitan Ross

I am writing to you to please consider the devastating environmental impact fracking can bring to the river and all those who it supports: fisherman, boaters, nature lover, and nyc residents who get their drinking water from the river and it's resovoirs.