

Marcy Gordon

Fracking is a crime against nature and humanity and must be globally banned. There is no reason to even use fossil fuels when truly clean technologies exist. Fracking poisons the entire ecosystem with carcinogenic chemicals that kill wildlife and humanity. This insanity must stop before greedy fossil fuel companies make this planet completely uninhabitable for anything other than microbes and cockroaches.