

Tristan Scremin

Fracking pollutes water. We must protect and keep our water clear for the now and future generations. Once our water sources are contaminated it is very difficult or impossible to make them pristine again. We can not afford the mistake of polluting our water sources. I call for a complete ban on fracking.