

Douglas Reppa

I oppose all fracking activities in the crucial Delaware River Basin, including the disposal of waste water. The fracking industry refuses to disclose what is in the toxic stew that is injected into the ground to extract gas and there is ample evidence that the impact on water quality is in fact toxic. I demand a ban on all fracking activities in the DRB.