

Candace Roberts

I am absolutely opposed to allowing disposal of fracking wastewater in the Delaware River watershed. This cannot possibly be safe and will negatively impact millions of people. Fracking companies can attend to their business and dispose of their waste appropriately. They do not need or deserve this latest offering of corporate welfare.