

Patricia Wilson

I am opposed to fracking in the Delaware River Basin. First, it is not safe. There are many example of accidents, excessive methane gas releases and pollution. Second, tourism in the basin is a major source of jobs and no one wants to "tour" as drilling and pumping site. I also oppose disposing of waster water in the basin and I oppose taking ground water and river water to support the fracking process.