

Deborah Stone

Dumping used water from drilling, no matter how treated - or extracting water from our already stressed river - should be permanently prohibited - not simply "discouraged."

