

Elizabeth Soychak

I urge you to say no to fracking around, dumping frack wastewater in, and withdrawing water from the Delaware for fracking elsewhere. America has the means in wind and solar power to step away from fracked gas and we need to protect our irreplaceable waterways for our children and their children. Please consider your children and grandchildren in your decision-making process - will they have to clean up our fracking mess?

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Soychak