

Stephanie Mayes

We need to protect our natural resources from permanent damage for it will ultimately hurt us. Water is what sustains us and any provision that allows for the extraction, for the purpose of fracking, is harmful and shortsighted. Subsequent dumping of waste water, full of unnamed poisons shows a lack of regard for the common good, the health of our people and the order of nature. Extract nothing.