

Mark Dion

Fracking is not a technology compatible with values of the upper Delaware region. In an area where water is essential for recreation, tourism and life, fracking is the wrong thing to do. Do not jeopardize our health, natural beauty and future with fracking and its related support technologies. No fracking in the Delaware. It must be protected.