

Dolores Ericksen

We are against the Proposed Hydraulic Fracturing anywhere near the Delaware River Basin. With only 3% of the water on earth being potable, we can not afford to allow the pristine river to be polluted for profit. It is time that over government works for us.