

Nicole Radlauer

Hydraulic fracturing is an extremely dangerous process that puts the life of our ecosystems at risk. It causes much more damage than it is worth and will be the cause of major health-related and ecological problems in the near future. In many parts of the country, this is already the reality. Please prevent the damage that fracking will surely cause from happening.
Thank you.