

Jennifer Lyon

Please give the most weight to protecting human interests like preserving clean water over industrial, profit driven, interests like hydrollic fracturing. We can live without fracked gas, but we CANNOT live without clean water. Please live up to your responsibilities in our great nation that is for the people, by the people. I implore you to protect people over corporate profits.