

Richard Ross

There should be absolutely no fracking or drilling in the Delaware River Basin and no withdrawals from the Delaware River. We need to preserve the integrity of our water and the pristine nature of our envrions for our children, grandchildren and generations to come.