

John Teevan

I support banning fracking but we do not want fracking waste to be dumped here either. The Commission must do their job to protect the drinking water for millions of people. Our drinking water will continue to be taken out of the Delaware River and fracking waste will continue to be dumped into the river unless we work to get a complete ban on fracking in the basin.