

Doris McKay

I am against anything that would make the Delaware River unsafe for human and other animal life. We have to protect our planet for future generations. It's not only animal species that are dying out, people are too.