

Eileen Stokley

The Delaware River is the source of my drinking water, as well as many other communities. The cleanliness of the water is critical to the affordable filtration and the safety of the water supply for our children and adults. Please do not allow any fracking related discharge into our river.