

Margaret Schoenagel

My family's land in western Pike county should not be affected by rules for eastern Pike County. Gas could be a financial boon to local people and to Pike County and Pennsylvania in the form of taxes. No governing body should be able to tell an individual what he or she can do with their own land.