

Ann Dixon

The Delaware River should remain free of fracking waste because more and more drinking water is being polluted by the fracking industry.