

Susan Babbitt

We should look to our state constitution, which says in Article I § 27 that we have a right to clean air and water. That really wraps up the matter. That provision is inconsistent with the discharge of numerous fracking chemicals into our water. No to fracking!