

Gina Perez

I urge you to choose no fracking in Delaware. We know the environmental risks posed by such dirty practices. With natural disaster after natural disaster this year, it is abundantly clear that we cannot allow such a powerful greenhouse gas, methane into our atmosphere. Constituents' health diminishes. Water sources are contaminated. We want renewable energy. That is the future we need to be building for.