

Ryan Dodson

Please consider a full ban on all fracking activity, since there is an overwhelming consensus of scientific research indicating that hydraulic fracturing has substantial adverse effects on public health, property interests, agriculture, and on our air, water, and land.