

Will Morel

We need a complete and permanent ban on fracking and its related activities in the Delaware River Basin. This is the source of drinking water for 15-17 million people, including the urban areas of NYC and Philadelphia. Do not put our drinking water at risk for more gas. We have plenty gas, water is precious and scarce.