

Wayne Augenstein

I support the the prohibition of high volume hydraulic fracturing (HVHF) in any kind of rock formation anywhere in the Delaware Valley, New Jersey and everywhere else. Instead of prolonging the use of dirty energy, the money spent thereon should be used to research and establish renewable energy sources, such as solar, wind, water, etc. Frac'ing is too dangerous to our environment to continue.