

Corey Hernandez

My name is Corey Hernandez and I am an 18 year old senior at Downingtown East High School. I believe fracking should be stopped in the Delaware River Basin because it harms the people and animals who drink from the water. If fracking was stopped there would be an overall increase in health in the surrounding areas. Animals will have more habitats and everyone will be living in a better state.