

George Chernetz

Please be aware that Fracking utilizes multiple harmful chemicals that will pollute the water, will damage the wildlife and will poison the water that people drink. Do not even attempt to frack these waters as your total disregard for all the animals, people and future of this state and our security of this country is paramount not oil or gas which is great amount already.