

m/m james marine

We are very much against reduction of fracking regulations due to the dangers associated with this process. There is too much pollution present as it is, and loosening regulations will make this much worse.