

Scott Bruinooge

The DRB has an immeasurable value to our region and its safety should never be compromised for any commercial gain. Hydraulic fracturing and its components should be entirely prohibited from the DR region. I strongly support regulation to create and enforce the highest genuine water purity standards to keep the river as clean as possible, forever.