

Shelley Volk

A ban on fracking will protect the clean water in National Parks in the area as well as water used by many private citizens. Fracking has proved disastrous in many areas and should not happen here.